New players gather for a chance to win 45.6 billion won. After an intense first round, the survivors' fates hang in the balance – down to one final vote.

(eerie music playing)

WOO-SEOK

You think Mr. Seong will be okay, right?

What if they killed him already?

If they were going to kill him they wouldn't have brought him out there.

You're certain they took Mr. Seong to that island where they play the games?

Well, I can't say that for sure, but that's what my gut's telling me.

From what I remember, the island was somewhere around this area.

"If we fail to capture the Front Man alive, we sneak onto the island however we can."

We're still doing that, right? Plan B, just like Mr. Seong wanted?

Once they start up the games again, his life may be in danger.

We need to find him before it's too late.

Just wait till I get my hands on these fuckers.

I'm gonna tase their asses till they sh;t smoke.

Player 456.

I sense you're holding on to a great many things.

You feel frozen, unable to leave or stay.

There's no use trying to fight it.

Your fate is decided.

I see the wandering souls trapped with you unable to rest in death.

You didn't come here of your own volition. Those vengeful souls dragged you here.

You have bad karma, but I can help with that.

As soon as we get out of here I can cleanse you with a gut ritual.

(alarm buzzes)

(mysterious music playing)

MASKED MANAGER

I would like to extend a heartfelt welcome to you all.

Over the next six days, you will participate in six different games.

Those who win all six games will receive a handsome cash prize.

WOMAN 1

Excuse me.

If we're just playing games here, then why you'd basically kidnap us?

How can we trust you now?

MASKED MANAGER

My apologies. Please understand it was a necessary step taken to maintain the strict confidentiality of these games.

WOMAN 2

Is that right? Then what's the deal with the masks?

That's a secret too, I'm guessing?

Yeah. Why are you wearing those?

Where the hell are we? Is this some kind of illegal casino, huh?

WOMAN 2

If this were one of those, you'd see the dealers' faces!

(players murmuring)

To ensure the fairness and confidentiality of the games, it is our policy not to disclose the faces and identities of our staff to participants.

We ask for your understanding.

Did you people strip me when you shoved me into this?

And where the hell are my shoes?

God damn it, that pair was fucking limited edition.

They don't even make those anymore. What the hell?

How you gonna fix it if they got ruined?

Look at this. The size is all wrong and I hate the colors you're using.

Can I have the outfit you guys are wearing instead?

The pink's cute as hell.

My apologies, but I'm afraid that's not possible.

To ensure the games run smoothly, you must wear your uniforms.

MAN 1

Uh, what about my phone?

You took my phone and my wallet. What the hell's going on?

When'll we get those?

MASKED MANAGER

Your belongings are safe and being stored securely.

We will return them to you once the games have ended.

Can I please get my phone returned at least?

I need to see how my crypto is doing.

MASKED MANAGER

Every player standing in this room is living on the brink of financial ruin.

You're on the edge of a cliff saddled with debts you cannot hope to pay off.

When we first approached each of you, you understandably did not trust us.

But as you know, we played a game, and true to our word, we gave you money when you won.

Because of that we earned your trust.

You called and volunteered to participate in this game of your own free will.

(suspenseful music)

MASKED MANAGER

More details on how the prize money gets divided will be shared after the first game has ended.

For these games, we will also be giving you a special option that we've never offered before.

And what option's that?

MASKED MANAGER

After each game, you will be given a chance to vote on whether you'd like to end the games there or if you want to keep playing.

If the majority of you wish to stop, the games will be terminated.

You can then take the prize money that has accumulated and leave.

Let's head in so we can think of a new plan of attack.

How'd they know he had a tracker in his implant?

Did one of you guys go get drunk and blab about it last night?

Come on, boys. It's gonna get pretty cold soon.

Let's pack up the gear and move out.

(sniffs)

You okay, bro?

Don't worry.

But...

You just...

I'm okay.

Hey, Gi-hun. What was that crazy-ass doll thing?

Were the guns inside its eyes?

The doll wasn't the one shooting at us.

They have a team of guards up in the walls.

How could you know that, though?

Have you been here before?

(alarm buzzing)

(mysterious music playing)

(players murmuring in fear)

You have successfully made it through the first game.

Congratulations to you all.

Now, if I may have your attention, I will announce the results so far.

(digital trilling)

Out of 456 players, 91 have been eliminated.

Which means 365 players have completed the first game.

Once again, congratulations to all of you for making it through the first game.

Sir, listen to me! Let us go, please!

Please! Don't kill us!

I know... I know my son owes money.

I swear, I'll pay it back.

I will. I'll do whatever it takes. I'll pay everything.

Just please, please forgive me and my son.

Come here. Help. Get on your knees and beg. There. Go.

I apologize for everything, forgive me. Give me another chance.

Yes.

YONG-SIK

I'll get the money.

MASKED MANAGER

Players, there seems to be a misunderstanding.

WOMAN

I'll do anything. Let us live.

MAN

Just hold on, you don't need to kill us. You don't need to kill me.

I'll work to pay everything back.

(players begging)

We are not trying to hurt you or collect your debts.

We are simply providing you with an opportunity.

GI-HUN

Consent form clause three!

(players quiet down)

"If the majority of players agree to stop playing, the games will be terminated."

Isn't that correct?

That is correct.

Then we'll do that. We'll put it to a vote.

If that's what you'd like.

During these games, we will always respect your right to freedom of choice.

(players sigh in relief)

But before we vote, we will reveal how much prize money has accumulated after the first game.

(remote beeps)

(ceiling rumbles)

(digital trilling)

(chiptune music playing)

(chiptune music intensifies)

MASKED MANAGER

A total of 91 players were eliminated during the first game.

Therefore, 9.1 billion won has accumulated so far.

If you decide to stop playing and quit the games now, the remaining 365 players will split the 9.1 billion amongst themselves.

Meaning, you each leave with an equal share.

Okay. How much per share?

Each player would get 24,931,500 won.

Are you serious? Man, come on, we like almost died.

24 million, that's all?

Are you fuck;ng kidding me?

(players grumbling)

20 mil?

WOMAN

You're cheating us.

What happened to 45 billion?

As per the rules of the games, 100 million won is added to the piggy bank for each player eliminated.

If you decide to play the next game, and more players are eliminated, then the total prize money will increase again accordingly.

So, say we make it to the end of all this, then how much do we get?

As previously mentioned, the total amount of prize money for all 456 players is 45.6 billion won.

That 45.6 billion will be divided amongst the players who make it through all six games without being eliminated.

Okay. So that would mean that if you're the only one at the end, you'd get it all?

That is correct.

(players murmuring)

So we'll still be able to call for a vote if we make it all the way through the next game too?

As outlined in the consent form, once each of the games has concluded, you may call for a vote.

If the majority agrees, you may take the accumulated prize money and leave.

Ensuring our players are participating in the games of their own volition is always our highest priority.

With that, the voting may now begin.

If you wish to continue playing, press the blue button with the "O."

If you wish to stop playing, press the red button with the "X."

You will vote in order of player number, from highest to lowest.

Player 456.

(players murmuring indistinctly)

WOMAN

This is all useless. There's no point.

Just as you didn't get to choose when you entered this world, you don't get to pick when you're going to leave it.

The time and place of each one of your deaths was decided from the instant you were born.

There's no changing it now.

No matter how hard you try to fight it, you'll never be able to escape your fate.

(suspenseful music playing)

(beeps)

MASKED MANAGER

Once you've voted, attach the patch you're given to the right side of your chest, and stand in the area marked with the corresponding symbol.

GI-HUN

Hold on, everyone!

Wait a minute!

(music stops)

Don't do this to yourselves.

Just think for a second. Can't you see what's going on?

These aren't regular games we're playing.

If we don't stop this, they'll kill us all!

Just focus on getting out of this place.

And to do that, we need to win the vote.

We can stop this here and now.

JEONG-DAE

And who do you think you are?

Why're you trying to egg people on? What're you getting at?

The game had just started, and you scared us shouting about getting shot!

WOMAN

He's right!

You kept going on and on about how we were all gonna die and I got so nervous that I was almost killed out there!

By the way, how did you know they were gonna shoot at us?

You work for these guys?

You're a plant put here to try and trick us.

They hired you to come and confuse us all!

Who is this man?

You're the ones who put him in here to manipulate us!

Hey, old man, you better watch yourself.

He's the reason you're not dead.

If he hadn't told us what to do, then none of us would be alive.

(players agreeing)

And you there!

I saw how freaked out you were. You were so scared your legs were shaking.

You should be thanking him, not calling him a fraud.

Hey, fucker, why do you care? You also a plant?

You kiss your mama with that mouth?

I kiss your mama. What you gonna do, huh?

This is ridiculous. You both need to stop this.

Please, that's enough. Everyone, everyone!

Think about what we've been through today. We can't let this go on.

It's only thanks to this gentleman that any of us are still breathing after all that.

Listen, I know how much money means to you all.

Your lives are worth a whole lot more.

Let's finish the vote and get out of here!

MAN 1

Let's get out of here!

MAN 2

Let's all leave together!

JEONG-DAE

No! We're staying right here! Bring it on!

(players clamoring)

I've played these games before!

I said I've played these games before.

I knew about the first game because I'd already done it.

'Cause I'd played the exact same one.

I was here three years ago, and I played them all.

And every single person who was there with me...

They were all killed, every one!

WOMAN

Died?

MAN 1

What does he mean?

MAN 2

They all really died?

MAN 3

This guy's full of sh;t.

YEONG-SAM

Wait a minute. If everyone else died, then how did you survive?

Unless...

You're saying you were the only winner?

It's true.

I was the only one who made it.

(players gasp, murmur)

If you keep playing until the end, I guarantee every person in this room... will eventually end up like those players.

We will all be killed.

(players murmuring)

(scoffs)

What a load of bullshit.

If you're the only one who made it, you won 45.6 billion won.

Why the hell would you come crawling back?

WOMAN

Yeah, he's gotta be lying!

Bullshit!

MAN 4

No way you won that money!

MAN 5

Crazy bastard!

MAN 6

If you won already, so did I!

If you really did win this thing before, that's good for us.

You can give us some tips on how to win.

And get to the end like you did.

JEONG-DAE

That's right!

He's won this.

There's nothing to worry about. We all can win!

Okay, come on! Let's make money!

THANOS

Let's get it!

YEONG-SAM

Let's make money!

(excited shouting)

I need you all to listen to me. We have to leave this place.

If we keep playing games, then more and more people are going to die.

And the next one they kill could be you.

We have to end this right now so we can get out of here alive.

(footsteps approaching)

Everyone...

MASKED MANAGER

Starting now, we will not permit any action that interferes with the voting process.

With that, we will now resume voting.

Player 228.

(suspenseful music playing)

PLAYER 149

Yong-sik, don't you dare!

Don't do anything stupid, okay?

(breath trembling)

(beeps)

(players cheering)

Yes, that's it. That's it, I knew you would.

MASKED MANAGER

Player 006.

(beeps)

(players cheering)

sh;t!

(Yeong-sam groans)

MASKED MANAGER

Player 004.

(beeps)

(players cheering)

MAN 1

What're you thinking?

MAN 2

Idiot!

And finally, Player 001.

THANOS

Now everybody say "O!"

(chanting) O!

(chanting) X!

(music intensifies)

(chanting continues)

(music fades)

(beeps)

(players cheering)

(ominous music playing)
